

In memory of emily

7th May 2002

Emily

In my hour of weakness, I seek the sweetness.
In my time of despair, I think of the love we share.
When my heart is heavy, I look to the light.
When the sun is shining, I'll still be pining.

When the moon is full, my stomach feels empty.
When I look at a garden, I'll see my rose.
A bird in flight, will bring delight.
The stars at night will always be bright.

The clouds above remind me.
Of the love we share.
For my Emily so fair
