You signalled come what may
Your arrival had begun
That you were on your way

It was not the time to happen
To early was the call
But you arrived so perfect
My darling little girl

{Chorus}

Through the laughter and the pain
It was plain to see
You are the product of my dreams
And God gave you to me

Your inner strength so great
Your soul a shining light
I knew we had a future
And could not give up the fight

As each trial and tribulation
Falls at your feet
Your spirit rises up
And you cannot accept defeat

{Chorus}

I was looking to that day
When we walk hand in hand
With other children laughing
And playing in the sand

Now we'll look back to this time
And think of all the tears
And thank God for all the happiness
He has given us through the years

{Chorus}

Through the laughter and the pain
It was plain to see
You've turned into an angel
And flown away from me
